

Exceptional designs deserve quality welding and fabrication.

From precision welding to custom fabrications, New England Welding provides the quality welding and fabrication you need for any project.

New England Welding is committed to finding cost-effective solutions for high-end design projects that feature the most challenging specifications. From start to finish, we offer the precision welding and fabrication capabilities needed to produce quality finished work that turns your concept into physical beauty.

With state-of-the-art equipment and high-caliber craftsmen, New England Welding provides quick turnaround and superior quality on a variety of architectural and Custom design work. We offer assistance in designing your projects with our own CAD Systems. Plus, we have solid relationships with top-quality vendors for finishing and plating to exacting specifications.

Modern Wedding, set the standard by excellence in the industry for the quality of the service.